

DRAWING FOR MEMORY

The students will use a variety of preprinted comic book style pages to create a journal that documents the lessons presented during the nine week period. They will use them to draw their entireties in and “take notes” in a creative manner. They must create a minimum of one page per lesson. The pages must be fully colored in with pencils and or markers. OR pen and ink black and white. the lettering may be printed and cut and pasted in or free handed in.

Points will be awarded for the following:

- 1) A cover that reflects the students image (self portrait) with their name in a “title form” 20 points
- 2) CONSISTENCY! The book must be the same fashion throughout. This includes choice of coloring style and fonts. 50 points
- 3) Unique style and creativity. 10 points
- 4) Craftsmanship and neatness. 20 points
- 5) Accuracy of information presented. possible 50 points per lesson